

CCS Enterprise Component Pro

 CCS Enterprise
Component Pro

Communication

Monitoring

Corporate
Performance

Running a component business is not easy, it requires extremely careful monitoring of purchasing and selling and in many instances timing of exchange rate is also a critical factor in every deal. CCS Enterprise Component Pro is determined to make the most optimized decision and control by providing critical transaction information.

Inventory control for component industries requires back-to-back order support to eliminate repeat key-ins. Unit cost at 6 digital after decimal precision to ensure the most accurate unit cost in multi-currency such as USD and Japanese Yen, booking. For trading business nature, special order matching and profit margin in report for easy of tracking and reporting.

- -Daily, weekly, bi-weekly, monthly exchange rate to ensure currencies fluctuation.
 - -Back-to-back order saving hundred of hours of key stokes
 - -Multiple purchasing to match with sales order
 - Automatic calculation of gain and loss in exchange difference
 - Production lot, location tracing
 - Delivery schedules
 - Component price book with effective date
 - Multiple warehousing to indicate stock lots for quality check
- Bill of Material and material projection
Trading import and export business nature

CCS Enterprise Component Pro inventory control, sales order, purchasing, accounts receivable, accounts payable are integrated and configurable to perform either division accounting or product accounting for timely management decision.

The complete CCS Enterprise Component Pro has been developed in 32-bit database Windows system with the highest product quality assurance and in use by many reputable customers.

Sales Performance

Project Control

Inventory

Administration

